ROCKY MOUNTAIN ELK FOUNDATION

CHARLOTTE-METROLINA
CHAPTER

Dear Friend of Conservation,

Elk! Hunting! Raffles! Good food and good times with like-minded friends, all for a GREAT cause! The Charlotte-Metrolina chapter of the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation invites you to our 1st annual Hunter's Bonanza on Saturday, March 28th, 2015 at 5:00 PM at the Charles Mack Citizen Center

Now entering RMEF's fourth decade of conserving some of North America's finest and most crucial landscapes, this event is our chapter's primary mode to raise the funds needed to ensure the future of elk, elk country and our hunting tradition. Tickets are limited so purchase your tickets today, your admission ticket also enters you in a drawing to win a .380 semi-auto handgun! Don't delay, reserve your chance to win top notch Guns, Guns & more Guns plus, optics, knives and other outdoor gear in our outstanding raffles and silent auction, all while enjoying a great night out for elk country.

This event is not your custom, traditional banquet event with a live auction and sit down meal. Note that this will be a high energy and fast paced fun event with Guns, Guns & more Guns!!! We will have games & raffles; a silent auction; General Raffle with a great selection of raffle items of sporting goods and firearms including a special "SUPER BONUS" area!! During the event you can help yourself at your leisure to some terrific BBQ and chicken with all the fixins plus some outstanding desserts too.

Since 1984, RMEF has conserved more than 6.5 million acres of prime elk country, opened or secured access to nearly 715,000 acres of land for hunters and other to enjoy, helped restore or support wild elk herds in 28 states and stood tall for America's great hunting heritage. Join us as, together, we help this great conservation movement roll forward.

Yours in Conservation,

Patricia Rohling
